DAILY GAZETTE.

THE GREAT BATTLES ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

The Fight of Saturday.

The active operations of Saturday comprise a series of attempts in force on the part of the rebels to break our line at various points, which were in one case partially successful, and in all the others completely unsuccessful.

In the morning, as we stood on the balcony of Chancellor's house, the attention was aroused by a sharp rattle of musketry coming from a column of rebels coming up by the main Fredericksburg plank road, directly in front of us. Knapp's battery, however, which was planted directly in front of the position, opened upon them, and after a few rounds caused them to retire.

At four the rebels are moving down in force on the plank road. Geary's division of Slocum's corps is sent in on the double-quick into the woods—a sharp contest ensues, and in a few minutes they came back in disorder. A portion of Kane's brigade, composed of raw troops, had broken, and thrown the column into confusion.

An aid from Slocum comes to ask General Hooker if he can have reinforcements. "No! he must hold his own. Howard will, of course, support him from the right. Let Geary's division, however, be thrown to the right of the road, so that the artillery may be able to sweep the enemy on the left." This treatment presently repaired the damage, and checked the hope of the rebels being able to pierce our centre.

Foiled in this, they are now prepared to make a still more desperate dash on our right flank. We were aware that they had been massing against that point all the afternoon, and the terrific treble of the demoniac yell with which the rebels always rush into battle, announced their approach from the woods by the Culpepper plank road. Jackson's whole corps, reinforced by D. H. Hill's division, numbering in all 40,000 men, had precipitated themselves on Howard's corps, forming our extreme right wing. This corps is composed of the divisions of Schurz, Steinwehr and Devin, and consists in great part of German troops. Without waiting for a single volley from the rebels, this corps disgracefully abandoned their position behind their breastworks, and commenced coming, panic stricken, down the road toward headquarters. Our right was thus completely turned, and the rebels in the fair way of doubling us up.

It was a critical situation and a terribly animated scene. The whole open plain presented such a spectacle as the simoon might make in the desert. Through the dusk of nightfall a rushing whirlwind of men and artillery sweep over the plain. The shattered, fleeing columns of men were rushing down and over us at headquarters.

Hooker's dispositions were made in a moment. Whom, of all others should he send in at this fearfully critical moment, but the darling child of his own creation—his own old corps, now commanded by Gen. Berry.

"General!" shouted the commander, "throw your men into the breach—receive the enemy on your bayonets—don't fire a shot—they can't see you!"

Oh! it was a sight to see the glorious band rush at the double quick to the rescue! Pressing up in their horrid array of glittering steel, the enemy's advance was quickly checked, and he had to withdraw to the line of breastworks just vacated by the eleventh corps.

Batteries were immediately sent up to the front, and Capt. Best, chief of artillery of Slocum's corps, massed twenty pieces on the crest near Gen. Sickles' headquarters, and a terrific fire was opened on the enemy, and kept up far into the night.

General Pleasanton, too, succeeded in turning back a dozen pieces taken from the flying corps and planting them in a favorable position, while he drew up his little brigade of cavalry, consisting of squadrons of the 6th New York, 8th Pennsylvania and 17th Pennsylvania, with drawn sabres to protect the guns (a novel sight in battle). Directing the pieces to be double-shotted with canister, he swept the position occupied by the enemy with a murderous fire.

While this is going on, the panic stricken Germans are sweeping past us, and round by headquarters into the road leading to United States Ford. Many members of the staff of Gen. Hooker and other general officers placed themselves in the road, and with drawn sabres smote and slashed the cowardly retreating rascal. It was all in vain, however. The road for two or three miles down toward United States Ford is now crowded with their shattered fragments. Gen. Hooker has, however, already sent Sykes' regulars after them. As to the loss sustained by this corps, either in killed or captured, it could not have been great—they ran too fast for that. I have the mortification to add that they allowed twelve pieces of cannon to fall into the hands of the enemy.

What makes this retreat not only disgraceful, but well nigh disastrous, is that it completely foiled a splendid manœuvre which Gen. Sickles with his corps was engaged in executing. He had gone in on a branch road leading off from the main pike, pierced the enemy's centre, penetrated a mile, cut them in two, and would have secured the key to victory, when the turning of Howard's position compelled him to make good his retreat, though he brought out with him 400 rebel prisoners.

The task to be accomplished by the commanding general during these night watches is one to tax his best energies. The enemy has completely turned our right, is now in our rear, and will, unless prevented, turn this immense advantage to account with the first dawn of to-morrow's light. He will doubtless draw in his line, bringing his right down perhaps to the neighborhood of Ely's Ford. He will replace the cowardly corps that has fled by Meade's corps, than which there is none better in the army, and reinforce it by that of Reynold's, which is coming up from the left, and is now within a couple of hours' march of here.

The conduct of the commanding general during the whole operations, and especially the amazing fertility of resources he has displayed in first checking what was well nigh being a crushing disaster, and then making such an arrangement of his line that will render it stronger even than before, give him claims to rank as a first-class captain.

THE FIGHT ON SUNDAY.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

DAILY GAZETTE.

THE GREAT BATTLES ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

The Fight of Saturday.

The active operations of Saturday comprise a series of attempts in force on the part of the rebels to break our line at various points, which were in one case partially successful, and in all the others completely unsuccessful.

In the morning, as we stood on the balcony of Chancellor's house, the attention was aroused by a sharp rattle of musketry coming from a column of rebels coming up by the main Fredericksburg plank road, directly in front of us. Knapp's battery, however, which was planted directly in front of the position, opened upon them, and after a few rounds caused them to retire.

At four the rebels are moving down in force on the plank road. Geary's division of Slocum's corps is sent in on the double-quick into the woods—a sharp contest ensues, and in a few minutes they came back in disorder. A portion of Kane's brigade, composed of raw troops, had broken, and thrown the column into confusion.

An aid from Slocum comes to ask General Hooker if he can have reinforcements. "No! he must hold his own. Howard will, of course, support him from the right. Let Geary's division, however, be thrown to the right of the road, so that the artillery may be able to sweep the enemy on the left." This treatment presently repaired the damage, and checked the hope of the rebels being able to pierce our centre.

Foiled in this, they are now prepared to make a still more desperate dash on our right flank. We were aware that they had been massing against that point all the afternoon, and the terriffic treble of the demoniac yell with which the rebels always rush into battle, announced their approach from the woods by the Culpepper plank road. Jackson's whole corps, reinforced by D. H. Hill's division, numbering in all 40,000 men, had precipitated themselves on Howard's corps, forming our extreme right wing. This corps is composed of the divisions of Schurz, Steinwehr and Devin, and consists in great part of German troops. Without waiting for a single volley from the rebels, this corps disgracefully abandoned their position behind their breastworks, and commenced coming, panic stricken, down the road toward headquarters. Our right was thus completely turned, and the rebels in the fair way of doubling us up.

It was a critical situation and a terribly animated scene. The whole open plain presented such a spectacle as the simoon might make in the desert. Through the dusk of nightfall a rushing whirlwind of men and artillery sweep over the plain. The shattered, fleeing columns of men were rushing down and over us at headquarters.

Hooker's dispositions were made in a moment. Whom, of all others should he send in at this fearfully critical moment, but the darling child of his own creation—his own old corps, now commanded by Gen. Berry.

"General!" shouted the commander, "throw your men into the breach—receive the enemy on your bayonets—don't fire a shot—they can't see you!"

Oh! it was a sight to see the glorious band rush at the double quick to the rescue! Pressing up in their horrid array of glittering steel, the enemy's advance was quickly checked, and he had to withdraw to the line of breastworks just vacated by the eleventh corps.

Batteries were immediately sent up to the front, and Capt. Best, chief of artillery of Slocum's corps, massed twenty pieces on the crest near Gen. Sickles' headquarters, and a terrific fire was opened on the enemy, and kept up far into the night.

General Pleasanton, too, succeeded in turning back a dozen pieces taken from the flying corps and planting them in a favorable position, while he drew up his little brigade of cavalry, consisting of squadrons of the 6th New York, 8th Pennsylvania and 17th Pennsylvania, with drawn sabres to protect the guns (a novel sight in battle). Directing the pieces to be double-shotted with canister, he swept the position occupied by the enemy with a murderous fire.

While this is going on, the panic stricken Germans are sweeping past us, and round by headquarters into the road leading to United States Ford. Many members of the staff of Gen. Hooker and other general officers placed themselves in the road, and with drawn sabres smote and slashed the cowardly retreating rascal. It was all in vain, however. The road for two or three miles down toward United States Ford is now crowded with their shattered fragments. Gen. Hooker has, however, already sent Sykes' regulars after them. As to the loss sustained by this corps, either in killed or captured, it could not have been great—they ran too fast for that. I have the mortification to add that they allowed twelve pieces of cannon to fall into the hands of the enemy.

What makes this retreat not only disgraceful, but well nigh disastrous, is that it completely foiled a splendid manœuvre which Gen. Sickles with his corps was engaged in executing. He had gone in on a branch road leading off from the main pike, pierced the enemy's centre, penetrated a mile, cut them in two, and would have secured the key to victory, when the turning of Howard's position compelled him to make good his retreat, though he brought out with him 400 rebel prisoners.

The task to be accomplished by the commanding general during these night watches is one to tax his best energies. The enemy has completely turned our right, is now in our rear, and will, unless prevented, turn this immense advantage to account with the first dawn of to-morrow's light. He will doubtless draw in his line, bringing his right down perhaps to the neighborhood of Ely's Ford. He will replace the cowardly corps that has fled by Meade's corps, than which there is none better in the army, and reinforce it by that of Reynold's, which is coming up from the left, and is now within a couple of hours' march of here.

The conduct of the commanding general during the whole operations, and especially the amazing fertility of resources he has displayed in first checking what was well nigh being a crushing disaster, and then making such an arrangement of his line that will render it stronger even than before, give him claims to rank as a first-class captain.

THE FIGHT ON SUNDAY.

The Army Not Disheartened.

The news from Hooker's army is more favorable than could have been expected, considering the nature of the first intelligence of the reverse. It appears that the army understands the necessity of the movement in re-crossing the river, and is not dissatisfied with it. To attack the rebels in their strongly fortified position would have made the result doubtful. To remain, short of food and ammunition, with the probability that their bridges would be swept away, would place them at the mercy of the rebel army. To move backwards a few miles, with no foe pressing upon them, was no dishonor and no defeat. They can now reorganize and try again. From our dispatches we gather that the army fully understands this, and appreciates the wisdom of the movement. Hence the secretary of war telegraphs that "there is no serious disaster to the organization and efficiency of the army." If the army is not discouraged, surely the country ought not to be, nor do we believe it will be, but will go on more vigorously than ever in the prosecution of the war. The necessities of the work are placed more palpably than ever before the people and their servants at Washington. The blood of the brave men shed so freely on the banks of the Rappahannock will not have been poured out in vain, if it teaches earnestness in the necessary means to put down the rebellion.

Proclamation by the President.

The President in his proclamation gives timely notice to foreigners that those who have exercised the privilege of voting under papers declaring their intention to become citizens are liable to the draft, and all who have declared their intention but have not voted, will be held liable, after sixty-five days, if found in the country. This is right. Those who enjoy the privileges of citizenship, or who intend to do so, must help save the institutions they prefer to live under. The minor, though born under the flag, is called to the service of arms before he becomes a citizen, why should not the foreigner be liable to the same duty, two years in advance of his actual citizenship.

WOUNDED IN THE FIFTH WISCONSIN.—The following are among the wounded, at the battle near Fredericksburg, on the 4th, belonging to the 5th Wisconsin regiment: Major H. M. Wheeler, thigh, slight; J. Higgins, E, foot; Capt. C. Knapp, side; Lt. L. F. Miller, side; H. S. Ames, E, thigh; H. S. Conover, E, serious; C. P. Jones, D, arm; Lt. Hathaway, thigh; Lt. M. Carter, thigh; Lt. J. McMartrie, severe; Capt. Strong, slight; Sergeant Henderson, slight; Capt. Turner, Capt. Camp, Byron Turk, August Tilling, Bidwell Pedley, George R. Bennett, Elijah Shoemaker, Aaron Daisy, Andrew Barstow, and W. P. White.

☞ Rents are enormously high in Chicago. The Tribune avers that from 300 to 500 "desirable tenements" could be rented at from $250 to $400. As it is, people are compelled to pay extravagantly for the merest rookeries.

☞ The Washington City Chronicle contains the following: Stonewall Jackson had his left arm amputated above the elbow. It is not known how soon he will be able to take the field. Gen. A. P. Hill was severely wounded in the calf of his leg. Gen. Paxton is killed. Gen. Lee reports that he has taken 5,000 prisoners, and that his loss in killed and wounded is very heavy, indeed.

AN ODD ONE.—A boy 12 years old, from Richland county, in this state, four feet high, and weighing 250 pounds, is on exhibition in Elkhorn. He measures 5 feet and 1 inch around the waist.

THE FOOLS NOT ALL DEAD.—Matrimony has proved a good speculation for Tom Thumb and his wife, who have taken on an average $1,000 per day, for admission to their levees, since their marriage.

MARINE POWER OF THE GREAT LAKES.—The insurance amount of capital invested in the commerce of our great lakes, is hardly realized by the public outside of business circles immediately interested in the trade.

The following statement of sail and steam vessels now engaged in the business is compiled from the Marine register for 1863, just issued by the board of lake underwriters:

|---|---|
| Steamers | 134 |
| Propellers and tugs | 233 |
| Barks and barkantiers | 191 |
| Brigs and brigantiers | 79 |
| Schooners | 1030 |
| Sloops | 14 |
| Barges | 60 |
| Total | 1701 |

Hundreds of these vessels are well adapted for alteration to gunboats and privateers, and in case of war with England, would furnish the government material for a formidable inland navy. With our great resources a few months would suffice to turn out a host of impregnable iron-clads, for offensive and defensive purposes, or to act as convoys to the great grain carrying fleet.—Wisconsin. C.

Milwaukee, May 7th.

For the Daily Gazette.
No Occasion for Despondency.

The intelligence of the past week from the army of the Potomac has not been what we desired. The friends of the government and the Union were perhaps very generally anticipating a complete victory over the strongly intrenched enemy at Fredericksburg. These expectations have not been realized. Whether from inferior numbers on our part, lack of military skill and executive efficiency in our commanders, "wrong strategical basis," or from some other cause, or causes, this failure has arisen, we may not have the means of determining fully at the present time. It is well perhaps to suspend our judgment in the case until we are furnished with reliable data in regard to the movements of Hooker and his army for the last ten days. It is hardly just to indulge in censure of the commanding general, or pronounce up on his merits or demerits, until more is known. There should be no popular clamor against him save on sufficient and satisfactory evidence.

It is true we have failed to capture Lee and his army at Fredericksburg, and are not in the way of occupying immediately the rebel capital. What then? Should we feel discouraged, and manifest by our repining that we have a disposition to "give up the ship?" No!—a thousand times, no! We have not the slightest occasion for despondency. The army under Major General Hooker is undoubtedly crippled somewhat; but in all probability the rebels have sustained by far the most serious loss. We have no doubt that the details of the late struggle will establish this fact beyond question. If they have gained a victory, which we do not acknowledge, it would take but few such to ruin them and their cause. Everybody supposed that if a battle took place at Fredericksburg it would be a sanguinary one.

We are willing to admit, as events have proved, that the rebels fought desperately. Gen. Lee and his supporters understood well that if completely routed there it would be the end of them. But the very tenacity with which the rebellious leaders cling to the idea of success in their devilish undertaking to overthrow the government of our fathers, and establish in its stead, in part at least, a slave oligarchy, shall by and by make their defeat, which is sure to come, more absolutely overwhelming. They seem almost bent on positive annihilation. The leading insurgents—villians of the deepest dye—are bound of course to do all the mischief they can, and bring the idea of popular government into disrepute as far as possible.—Falling, they would bring down the pillars of the state with them, and extinguish the sacred fire of universal liberty with their blood! But this, in all their madness, they will not be able to do. They shall ignominiously fail! This is manifest destiny, and needs no prophetic vision to foretell. The handwriting on the wall is as clearly in opposition to them and their wicked schemes, as it was against Belshazzar, the iniquitous Chaldeean King of the olden time!

We repeat, we have no occasion of despondency. We may regret the frightful carnage and the loss of brave men; but we must still keep heart and hope in the conflict, for our final triumph is certain. Sebastopol was not taken in a day, nor in a twelve month. We know how how that military undertaking, which it was intended at first should be accomplished in a few weeks, occupied a year and a half, involving an immense loss of life and treasure. There were dark periods in our revolutionary struggle, but through those seven long years our fathers toiled, suffered and bled in hope! Let us imitate them in moral earnestness and patriotic endeavor, and the result shall be glorious. W.

The Feeling in the Army.

The following is from the Washington City Chronicle:

From a gentleman connected with one of the Pennsylvania regiments which participated in the series of battles of the last few days and arrived in this city this evening, we have cheering advices from our army at Falmouth. He was a participator in the battles fought under the immediate eye of General Hooker, and affirms that never did soldiers fight better, and never was such admirable generalship displayed as on this occasion.

With the exception of the time of the panic in the 11th corps, the men stood as firm as rocks, and literally mowed the rebels down as fast as they came up. He had witnessed many battles during the war, but he assures us that never did such immense slaughter of human beings take place. Our batteries were massed at threatened points, and showered their double shotted contents into the ranks of the rebels.

But whilst this was taking place, our men were, in a great measure, screened from the fire of their opponents. They had been so disposed that they could do the most possible damage to the enemy, whilst not suffering much from him. The rebel dead were piled, in many places, eight and ten deep, and a person could not walk a step without stumbling over a corpse.

He thinks the enemy at least lost four to our one. Hooker did all he could to draw them out of their strongholds, and then deal as much destruction into their ranks as possible. The report that the army has been demoralized and feel that they have been whipped in being withdrawn across the Rappahannock, is pronounced by this gentleman and numerous officers and civilians with whom we have conversed, unqualifiedly false. Never were our troops in such good spirits, and never so jubilant over their achievements as now.

Instead of thinking their withdrawal was an acknowledgment of defeat, they knew it was a wise movement of Hooker, and would result far more disastrously to the rebel cause than if we had remained at Chancellorville. They know that Gen. Hooker, by simply remaining at Chancellorville would keep the rebels there, but would not destroy them. His main object was to do the latter. He had pledged his word as a soldier, and they knew he would carry it out.

Admiral Dupont is a native of New Jersey, but for many years a citizen of Delaware. He entered the United States navy in December, 1815, over forty-seven years ago, and has served over twenty-three years at sea. In July last he was commissioned as rear admiral, and placed in command of the South Atlantic blockading squadron.

THE GREAT BATTLES ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

Now I come to Sunday. It was perfectly evident, from the position of affairs of Saturday night, that there must be a change of our lines, which would throw the enemy out of our rear and into our front again. It will be seen by what skilful generalship the enemy was fought and checked on the front, and flank, and rear, while this was being done.

Gen. Reynolds' 1st army corps arrived at United States Ford on Saturday afternoon. It was immediately put in position on our right, which was withdrawn from the plank road to the Ely's Ford turnpike. This line was immediately formed by Gen. Reynolds and Meade, the latter's position on the left having been relieved by Gens. Howard's eleventh corps, which, notwithstanding its disorganized condition, was so far reorganized during the night as to be fit for duty again this morning. They were assigned the position on the left, where it was probable there would be little or no fighting, and were protected by the strong works built the day before by General Mead's corps. Our new line now assumed the shape of a triangle, prolonged at the apex, the right of the line being somewhat longer than the left. As the portion of the line on the right was new, time was necessary to fortify and intrench it, and the work was carried on vigorously by the 5th and 1st army corps.

It was very evident at daylight this morning that the day would bring forth a terrific battle. We knew that the enemy had been reinforcing his lines all night, at the expense, undoubtedly, of the strength of his force on our left. His intention was, evidently, to fight for the possession of the plank road, which it was perfectly apparent he must have, as that portion of it which we then held was subject to the enemy's assaults in front and on both flanks.

But the possession of this road was not obtained by the enemy, save at our own time, at his severest cost, and after one of the most desperate, tenacious and bloody conflicts, for its short duration, of the whole war. At 5 o'clock a. m. the rebels could be plainly seen up the plank road, about a mile and a half from the Chancellor House, which Gen. Hooker still retained as his headquarters, though a shell had gone through it the evening before, and another had cut down a tree directly in front of it.

Our line of battle was formed with Gen. Berry's gallant division on the right, Gen. Birney next on the left, Gen. Whipple and Gen. Williams supporting. At 5½ a. m. the advance became engaged in the ravine, just beyond the ridge, where Capt. Best's guns had made their terrific onslaught the night before, and where they still frowned upon the enemy and threatened his destruction.

The rattle of musketry soon became a long continued crash, and in a few moments, as battalion after battalion became engaged, the roar surpassed all conception, and indicated that the fight would be one of the most terrible nature. Gen. Berry's division, which had checked the enemy's advance the night before, engaged him again, and if it were possible for them to add more laurels to their fame, then they did it thrice over again. The enemy advanced his infantry in overwhelming numbers, and seemed determined to crush our forces. But the brave men of Sickles and Slocum, who fought their columns with desperate gallantry, held the rebels in check and inflicted dreadful slaughter among them. Gen. French's division was sent in on the right flank of our line about 7 a. m., and in a short time a horde of ragged, streaming rebels running down the road indicated that that portion of the enemy's line had been crushed. At 8 o'clock a. m. Gen. French sent his compliments to Gen. Hooker, with the information that he had charged the enemy and was driving him before him.

Sickles sustained the attack upon his line with great endurance. The enemy seemed determined to crush him with the immensity of his forces, and, as subsequently shown from the statements of prisoners, five whole divisions of the rebel army were precipitated upon this portion of the line, for from these five divisions we took during the day an aggregate of over 2,000 prisoners.

The exploits of our gallant troops in those dark, tangled, gloomy woods may never be brought to light; but they would fill a hundred volumes. It was a deliberate, desperate hand to hand encounter, and the carnage was perfectly frightful. Cool officers say that the dead and wounded of the enemy covered the ground in heaps, and that the rebels seemed utterly regardless of their lives and literally threw themselves upon the muzzles of our guns. Many desperate charges were made during the fight, particularly by Berry's division. Mott's brigade made fifteen distinct charges, and captured seven stands of rebel colors, the 7th New Jersey, Col. Francine, alone capturing four stand of colors, and five hundred prisoners.

Gen. Couch's 2d army corps, though only in part present, did excellent work. It was Gen. French who charged and drove the enemy on the flank, and it was the indomitable Hancock who gallantly went to the relief of the hard pressed Sickles.

The engagement lasted without the slightest intermission from 5:30 a. m. to 8:15 a. m., when there was a temporary cessation on our part, occasion by getting out of ammunition. We held our position for nearly an hour with the bayonet, and then being re supplied, an order was to fall back to the vicinity of the Chancellorville House, which we did in good order. Here the contest was maintained for an hour or more, not so severely as before, but with great havoc to the enemy, and considerable loss to ourselves.

The vicinity of the Chancellorville House was now the theatre of the fight, and my visits to that spot became less frequent. Gen. Hooker maintained his headquarters there until 10 o'clock a. m., when it was set on fire by the enemy's shells, and is now in ruins. Chancellorville is no longer in existence, having perished with the flame, but Chancellorville in history, never to be effaced.

Our new line was now so far established as to render it safe to withdraw all our forces on that front, which was accordingly done, and at 11:30 a. m. the musketry firing ceased.

The engagement had lasted six hours, but had been the most terrific of the war. Our artillery literally had slaughtered the enemy, and many of the companies had lost heavily in men themselves, but the guns were all saved.

The enemy was no longer in our rear, but had been shoved down directly in our front, and is now directly between us and our forces in Fredericksburg, and we were again in an entrenched and formidably fortified position.

WHEAT FOR FRANCE.—The Green Bay Advocate learns that 30,000 bushels of wheat have been purchased in Oshkosh, by a party in New York, for direct shipment to Havre, France. It is known as the "Green Bay Club."

A "parliamentary" juror in a court in western New York interrupted the proceedings, last week, by remarking that he considered the labors imposed upon the jury were unjustly severe, and believing that a motion to adjourn was always in order, he would move that the court do now adjourn.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, May 8.

By the President of the United States --A Proclamation.

WHEREAS, The congress of the United States at its last session enacted a law entitled an act for enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes, which was approved on the third day of March last; and

WHEREAS, It is recited in said act that there now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is under the constitution of the United States the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each state a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and

WHEREAS, For these high purposes a military force is indispensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and

WHEREAS, No service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the constitution and the Union, and the consequent preservation of free government;

And, whereas, for the reasons thus recited, it was enacted by the said statute that all able-bodied male citizens of the United States, and persons of foreign birth who shall have declared on oath of their intention to become citizens under and in pursuance of the laws thereof, between the ages of 20 and 45 years, with certain exceptions not necessary to be herein mentioned and declared; to constitute the national forces, and shall be liable to perform military duty in the service of the United States. when called out by the president for that purpose; and, whereas, it is claimed and in behalf of persons of foreign birth, within the ages specified in said act, who have heretofore declared on oath their intention to become citizens, under and in pursuance of the laws of the United States, and who have not exercised the right of suffrage or any other political franchise under the laws of the United States, or of the states thereof, are not absolutely concluded by their aforesaid declaration of intentions, from renouncing their purpose to become citizens; and that on the contrary such persons, under treaties or the law of nations, retain a right to renounce that purpose, and to forego the privilege of citizenship and to residence within the United States, under the obligations imposed by the aforesaid act of congress:

Now, therefore, to avoid all misapprehensions concerning the liability of the persons concerned, to perform the services required by such enactment, and to give it full effect, I do hereby order and proclaim that no plea of alienage will be received, or allowed to exempt from the obligations imposed by the aforesaid act of congress, any person of foreign birth who shall have declared on oath his intention to become a citizen of the United States, under the laws thereof, and who shall be found within the United States at any time during the continuance of the present insurrection and rebellion, at or after the expiration of the period of sixty-five days from the date of this proclamation: nor shall any such plea of alienage be allowed in favor of any such persons who have so as aforesaid declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and shall have exercised at any time the right of suffrage, or any other political franchise within the United States, under the laws of any of the several states.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President,
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

An official dispatch received at Washington, to-day, from Admiral Porter, states that he occupied Grand Gulf forts on the 3d inst.

A dispatch from Yorktown states that Col. Kilpatrick with his cavalry division has arrived at Gloucester point, having accomplished the object of his expedition.

Dispatches from headquarters of the army of the Potomac, dated 7th, say that Gen. Stoneman not only destroyed all railroad communication, but destroyed the canal on James river,

MEMPHIS, May 7, via CAIRO, May 8.

Special to the Tribune.—We have information that Gen. Grant has captured Grand Gulf, Port Gibson and Willard Valley. On Wednesday noon, Grant was thirty miles up the Big Black, and expected to go ten miles more that night.

His forces are traveling overland. Every man in his army is enthusiastic at the prospect now of what is deemed certain victory.

WASHINGTON, May 8.

Special to the Tribune.—A confidential dispatch from Lee to the rebel President, captured by Stoneman, claims a great victory, but adds that his loss is terrific.

The officers returned from Richmond saw two divisions of Longstreet's force coming up the river.

Over five hundred wounded were brought up to this city, to-day.

The rebels in Fredericksburg, on Wednesday commenced to throw shells at a body of our troops, who were on this side, but our batteries on Falmouth Hights soon silenced them. They did not make a second attempt of this nature.

The President and Gen. Halleck went down on Wednesday evening on a special boat to Acquia Creek, where they took the cars for Falmouth. They met with a most enthusiastic reception from the whole army. The party visited the hospitals and paid particular attention to our wounded soldiers.

They were in consultation with Hooker all day yesterday. At the time of our re-crossing the Rappahannock, a large number of Virginia refugees availed themselves of the opportunity of coming with our troops. Among the the number was a lady who stated that she had been in the rebel lines for some time.

They rebels had the flower of their army at Fredericksburg, and every regiment not able to make a long march or endure much fatigue was sent to subordinate posts, and placed as garrisons in forts on the James river, so that the best troops the rebel confederacy could muster were in Hooker's front. The immense loss they sustained will send a wail from one end of the south to the other.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—There has been intense excitement in the city all the forenoon, on account of an attempt to mob and destroy the Age newspaper office—F. G. Grund's secesh organ. It is the leading copperhead of the place. The bulletin board was covered with a large placard, headed "Arbitrary Arrests," and alluding to C. L. Vallandigham as a martyr. The latter part contained comments on General Hooker of an uncomplimentary kind.

A wounded Union soldier passing by, tore the placard off. A clerk in the office attempted to interfere, but the crowd gathered, and upheld the soldier in his act. The crowd soon became a mob, and proceeded into the office with the expressed intention of tearing it down, giving as they went loud cheers for Hooker and the Union.

Mayor Henry called out a large force of extra police, and succeeded in preventing violence, but the excitement did not subside until past 11 o'clock. All is now quiet.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—This morning's Washington Chronicle, generally regarded as the government organ, contains the following: Time only can develope the precise reasons why General Hooker withdrew his army across the Rappahannock. It may be that not only the swelling of the stream by three days' rain, but some ulterior purpose caused the movement which was so unexpected to the public at large. We do not care to speculate. We are content with certainty.

It is certain, then, that we have inflicted vastly more damage on the enemy than they have on us. The whole amount of our wounded cannot exceed 5,000 and our killed 1,500. This we learn from reliable sources. There is no means of telling how many prisoners we have taken, but it is certainly more than 5,000. The number reported by Lee and our dispatches from Suffolk show this to be an overestimate.

The fact that the enemy were not willing to follow us as we withdrew to the rear, or to interfere in our crossing, is certain indication of their exhaustion. They were unquestionably terribly cut up.

General Stoughton reports that they acknowledged to unprecedented losses, and that they suffered especially from artillery. On the other hand, we found our own army in the very best of spirits.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 9.

The World's Washington special states that when the President and Halleck read the intelligence of Hooker's recrossing the Rappahannock, at 3 o'clock yesterday, they immediately proceeded to his headquarters at Falmouth, where they spent the night, and most of the next day, returning here last night. The report which found its way into print that 40,000 men from Heintzelman were sent to reinforce Hooker is untrue, not a single man was sent. The most reliable information estimates of our loss in killed, wounded and prisoners, place it not in excess of 15,000.

Gen. Averill has been relieved of his command for not keeping open communication with Stoneman, and following up orders for his part of the cavalry expedition. Averill's friends are confident that he did nothing that cannot be fully justified.

The reported loss of a large amount of field artillery in Hooker's retreat is untrue. It is believed that our forces brought away more than they crossed with. Hooker had nearly recrossed the Rappahannock before he heard the news in the rebel papers of the success of Stoneman's expedition.—But few of the wounded are arriving here. The cause of delay is unknown.

The President told a member of the cabinet this p. m. since his return from Falmouth, that he found Hooker's army in a much better condition than he anticipated, and he believed that the moment the weather cleared off it could again make a forward movement, if it should be so decided.

Among the improbable rumors brought by the boat this p. m. was one that the enemy commenced shelling Falmouth, today, and another that Hooker had commenced to cross again. There has been no excitement in Washington to-day. It is believed in Washington that the conscription act will be immediately enforced, beginning with the state of New York.

Times' special says official confirmation has been received of the capture of the Richmond city battalion, who were sent out to discover the reason for the suspension of intercourse with Lee. They were captured by Stoneman about 15 miles from Richmond.

Sixty-five rebel prisoners took the oath of allegiance, and more than a quarter of the prisoners taken will do the same. One hundred and twenty wounded arrived at Washington Friday.

The Tribune despatch states that the wounded will all be brought to Washington and are arriving rapidly. 1,170 rebel prisoners captured at Chancellorville have been sent to Fort Delaware. Many of them wish to take the oath of allegiance. The returned prisoners from Richmond state that Longstreet's force, comprising two divisions, was seen coming from Suffolk to Richmond, when our returned prisoners were on their way down the river. The Richmond Despatch, of the 7th, states that the rebel surgeons give their loss at 18,000.

The Herald's dispatch states that the war department has consented that wounded soldiers may go home to be nursed.

A correspondent of the Herald states that the 12th New Hampshire went into the fight with 580 and came out with only 150. The Vermont brigade lost 300.

NEW YORK, May 9.

The Herald's special says that the latest rumor is that General Heintzelman is to be placed in command of the army of the Potomac, in place of Hooker.

MEMPHIS, May 7, via Cairo, May 8.

Special to Chicago Times.—The steamer Luminary left Young's Point on Tuesday night, and arrived this morning, on Friday. A portion of our forces up Big Black river had a fight at Port Gibson which they occupied. The federal loss is reported at 200 killed and wounded. Port Gibson is six miles in the rear of Grand Gulf, which the rebels hastily evacuated, after the fight at Gibson, and the gunboat engagement in front of the former. The captain of the Luminary says the federals certainly occupied Grand Gulf. This gives Grant possession of the Big Black river and access to the rear of Vicksburg. If he succeeds in tapping the Jackson railroad, the Vicksburg line of communication with the interior will be cut off.

A few days ago the steamers Moderator and Horicon, which had been engaged in carrying troops across near Grand Gulf, collided, and the Horicon sunk. One section of the Chicago battery was aboard and was lost.

On Sunday night a tug with a barge of hay on each side started to run the Vicksburg batteries to join the fleet below.—When nearly by the city she was struck by a hot shot from the rebel batteries which fired the hay. The tug and barges were consumed. My informant states that only one person was known to have escaped. Only 15 or 20 persons were aboard. The river is still falling below. The gunboat Choctaw will be ready for service in a few days. Her injuries are not so bad as reported.

An expedition from here to Raleigh in this county, a few days ago, obtained a large number of horses and cattle and 36 prisoners, mostly captured near Holley Springs, reached the city yesterday. Rebel reports claim the capture of several hundred prisoners at Tuscumbia recently by Gen. Forrest.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 9.

The steamer Morning Star, from New Orleans the 30th, and Havana May 4th, has arrived. Part of General Banks' staff and his private secretary came passengers, with dispatches to the government. The gunboat Huntsville was spoken off Moro Castle, having taken several prizes.

News has been received from the French headquarters in Mexico to the 12th, saying that the French are in possession of all but a small portion of Puebla.

The United States schooner Annie had overhauled several suspicious vessels which caused great excitement at Havana. A Spanish steamer was sent to investigate.

CINCINNATI, May 9.

The court martial in the Vallandigham case, which submitted its decision to Gen. Burnside, yesterday, will be given publicity in a general order.

NEW YORK, May 9.

The steamer Circassia from Wilmington 4th, has arrived, and has aboard Com. Forbes, captured off Sabine Pass by the steamer New London, and a lot of rebel prisoners captured from the rebel steamer Chattahoochee. She reports the ironclads off Charleston all ready for another attack.

CLEVELAND, May 9.

The convention yesterday of the Cleveland, Columbus & Cincinnati, Cleveland & Toledo, Cleveland & Erie, Buffalo & State Line railroads agreed to consolidate their gross earning and make a pro rata division on the basis of last year's earnings.

The Army Not Disheartened.

The news from Hooker's army is more favorable than could have been expected, considering the nature of the first intelligence of the reverse. It appears that the army understands the necessity of the movement in re-crossing the river, and is not dissatisfied with it. To attack the rebels in their strongly fortified position would have made the result doubtful. To remain, short of food and ammunition, with the probability that their bridges would be swept away, would place them at the mercy of the rebel army. To move backwards a few miles, with no foe pressing upon them, was no dishonor and no defeat. They can now reorganize and try again. From our dispatches we gather that the army fully understands this, and appreciates the wisdom of the movement. Hence the secretary of war telegraphs that "there is no serious disaster to the organization and efficiency of the army." If the army is not discouraged, surely the country ought not to be, nor do we believe it will be, but will go on more vigorously than ever in the prosecution of the war. The necessities of the work are placed more palpably than ever before the people and their servants at Washington. The blood of the brave men shed so freely on the banks of the Rappahannock will not have been poured out in vain, if it teaches earnestness in the necessary means to put down the rebellion.

Proclamation by the President.

The President in his proclamation gives timely notice to foreigners that those who have exercised the privilege of voting under papers declaring their intention to become citizens are liable to the draft, and all who have declared their intention but have not voted, will be held liable, after sixty-five days, if found in the country. This is right. Those who enjoy the privileges of citizenship, or who intend to do so, must help save the institutions they prefer to live under. The minor, though born under the flag, is called to the service of arms before he becomes a citizen, why should not the foreigner be liable to the same duty, two years in advance of his actual citizenship.

WOUNDED IN THE FIFTH WISCONSIN.—The following are among the wounded, at the battle near Fredericksburg, on the 4th, belonging to the 5th Wisconsin regiment: Major H. M. Wheeler, thigh, slight; J. Higgins, E, foot; Capt. C. Knapp, side; Lt. L. F. Miller, side; H. S. Ames, E, thigh; H. S. Conover, E, serious; C. P. Jones, D, arm; Lt. Hathaway, thigh; Lt. M. Carter, thigh; Lt. J. McMartrie, severe; Capt. Strong, slight; Sergeant Henderson, slight; Capt. Turner, Capt. Camp, Byron Turk, August Tilling, Bidwell Pedley, George R. Bennett, Elijah Shoemaker, Aaron Daisy, Andrew Barstow, and W. P. White.

☞ Rents are enormously high in Chicago. The Tribune avers that from 300 to 500 "desirable tenements" could be rented at from $250 to $400. As it is, people are compelled to pay extravagantly for the merest rookeries.

☞ The Washington City Chronicle contains the following: Stonewall Jackson had his left arm amputated above the elbow. It is not known how soon he will be able to take the field. Gen. A. P. Hill was severely wounded in the calf of his leg. Gen. Paxton is killed. Gen. Lee reports that he has taken 5,000 prisoners, and that his loss in killed and wounded is very heavy, indeed.

AN ODD ONE.—A boy 12 years old, from Richland county, in this state, four feet high, and weighing 250 pounds, is on exhibition in Elkhorn. He measures 5 feet and 1 inch around the waist.

THE FOOLS NOT ALL DEAD.—Matrimony has proved a good speculation for Tom Thumb and his wife, who have taken on an average $1,000 per day, for admission to their levees, since their marriage.

MARINE POWER OF THE GREAT LAKES.—The insurance amount of capital invested in the commerce of our great lakes, is hardly realized by the public outside of business circles immediately interested in the trade.

The following statement of sail and steam vessels now engaged in the business is compiled from the Marine register for 1863, just issued by the board of lake underwriters:

|---|---|
| Steamers | 134 |
| Propellers and tugs | 253 |
| Barks and barkantiers | 191 |
| Brigs and brigantiers | 79 |
| Schooners | 1030 |
| Sloops | 14 |
| Barges | 60 |
| Total | 1701 |

Hundreds of these vessels are well adapted for alteration to gunboats and privateers, and in case of war with England, would furnish the government material for a formidable inland navy. With our great resources a few months would suffice to turn out a host of impregnable iron-clads, for offensive and defensive purposes, or to act as convoys to the great grain carrying fleet.—Wisconsin. C.

No Occasion for Despondency.

The intelligence of the past week from the army of the Potomac has not been what we desired. The friends of the government and the Union were perhaps very generally anticipating a complete victory over the strongly intrenched enemy at Fredericksburg. These expectations have not been realized. Whether from inferior numbers on our part, lack of military skill and executive efficiency in our commanders, "wrong strategical basis," or from some other cause, or causes, this failure has arisen, we may not have the means of determining fully at the present time. It is well perhaps to suspend our judgment in the case until we are furnished with reliable data in regard to the movements of Hooker and his army for the last ten days. It is hardly just to indulge in censure of the commanding general, or pronounce upon his merits or demerits, until more is known. There should be no popular clamor against him save on sufficient and satisfactory evidence.

It is true we have failed to capture Lee and his army at Fredericksburg, and are not in the way of occupying immediately the rebel capital. What then? Should we feel discouraged, and manifest by our repining that we have a disposition to "give up the ship?" No!—a thousand times, no! We have not the slightest occasion for despondency. The army under Major General Hooker is undoubtedly crippled somewhat; but in all probability the rebels have sustained by far the most serious loss. We have no doubt that the details of the late struggle will establish this fact beyond question. If they have gained a victory, which we do not acknowledge, it would take but few such to ruin them and their cause. Everybody supposed that if a battle took place at Fredericksburg it would be a sanguinary one.

We are willing to admit, as events have proved, that the rebels fought desperately. Gen. Lee and his supporters understood well that if completely routed there it would be the end of them. But the very tenacity with which the rebellious leaders cling to the idea of success in their devilish undertaking to overthrow the government of our fathers, and establish in its stead, in part at least, a slave oligarchy, shall by and by make their defeat, which is sure to come, more absolutely overwhelming. They seem almost bent on positive annihilation. The leading insurgents—villians of the deepest dye—are bound of course to do all the mischief they can, and bring the idea of popular government into disrepute as far as possible.—Falling, they would bring down the pillars of the state with them, and extinguish the sacred fire of universal liberty with their blood! But this, in all their madness, they will not be able to do. They shall ignominiously fail! This is manifest destiny, and needs no prophetic vision to foretell. The handwriting on the wall is as clearly in opposition to them and their wicked schemes, as it was against Belshazzar, the iniquitous Chaldeean King of the olden time!

We repeat, we have no occasion of despondency. We may regret the frightful carnage and the loss of brave men; but we must still keep heart and hope in the conflict, for our final triumph is certain. Sebastopol was not taken in a day, nor in a twelve month. We know how how that military undertaking, which it was intended at first should be accomplished in a few weeks, occupied a year and a half, involving an immense loss of life and treasure. There were dark periods in our revolutionary struggle, but through those seven long years our fathers toiled, suffered and bled in hope! Let us imitate them in moral earnestness and patriotic endeavor, and the result shall be glorious. W.

The Feeling in the Army.

The following is from the Washington City Chronicle:

From a gentleman connected with one of the Pennsylvania regiments which participated in the series of battles of the last few days and arrived in this city this evening, we have cheering advices from our army at Falmouth. He was a participator in the battles fought under the immediate eye of General Hooker, and affirms that never did soldiers fight better, and never was such admirable generalship displayed as on this occasion.

With the exception of the time of the panic in the 11th corps, the men stood as firm as rocks, and literally mowed the rebels down as fast as they came up. He had witnessed many battles during the war, but he assures us that never did such immense slaughter of human beings take place. Our batteries were massed at threatened points, and showered their double shotted contents into the ranks of the rebels.

But whilst this was taking place, our men were, in a great measure, screened from the fire of their opponents. They had been so disposed that they could do the most possible damage to the enemy, whilst not suffering much from him. The rebel dead were piled, in many places, eight and ten deep, and a person could not walk a step without stumbling over a corpse.

He thinks the enemy at least lost four to our one. Hooker did all he could to draw them out of their strongholds, and then deal as much destruction into their ranks as possible. The report that the army has been demoralized and feel that they have been whipped in being withdrawn across the Rappahannock, is pronounced by this gentleman and numerous officers and civilians with whom we have conversed, unqualifiedly false. Never were our troops in such good spirits, and never so jubilant over their achievements as now.

Instead of thinking their withdrawal was an acknowledgment of defeat, they knew it was a wise movement of Hooker, and would result far more disastrously to the rebel cause than if we had remained at Chancellorville. They know that Gen. Hooker, by simply remaining at Chancellorville would keep the rebels there, but would not destroy them. His main object was to do the latter. He had pledged his word as a soldier, and they knew he would carry it out.

Admiral Dupont is a native of New Jersey, but for many years a citizen of Delaware. He entered the United States navy in December, 1815, over forty-seven years ago, and has served over twenty-three years at sea. In July last he was commissioned as rear admiral, and placed in command of the South Atlantic blockading squadron.

THE GREAT BATTLES ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

Now I come to Sunday. It was perfectly evident, from the position of affairs of Saturday night, that there must be a change of our lines, which would throw the enemy out of our rear and into our front again. It will be seen by what skilful generalship the enemy was fought and checked on the front, and flank, and rear, while this was being done.

Gen. Reynolds' 1st army corps arrived at United States Ford on Saturday afternoon. It was immediately put in position on our right, which was withdrawn from the plank road to the Ely's Ford turnpike. This line was immediately formed by Gen. Reynolds and Meade, the latter's position on the left having been relieved by Gens. Howard's eleventh corps, which, notwithstanding its disorganized condition, was so far reorganized during the night as to be fit for duty again this morning. They were assigned the position on the left, where it was probable there would be little or no fighting, and were protected by the strong works built the day before by General Mead's corps. Our new line now assumed the shape of a triangle, prolonged at the apex, the right of the line being somewhat longer than the left. As the portion of the line on the right was new, time was necessary to fortify and intrench it, and the work was carried on vigorously by the 5th and 1st army corps.

It was very evident at daylight this morning that the day would bring forth a terrific battle. We knew that the enemy had been reinforcing his lines all night, at the expense, undoubtedly, of the strength of his force on our left. His intention was, evidently, to fight for the possession of the plank road, which it was perfectly apparent he must have, as that portion of it which we then held was subject to the enemy's assaults in front and on both flanks.

But the possession of this road was not obtained by the enemy, save at our own time, at his severest cost, and after one of the most desperate, tenacious and bloody conflicts, for its short duration, of the whole war. At 5 o'clock a. m. the rebels could be plainly seen up the plank road, about a mile and a half from the Chancellor House, which Gen. Hooker still retained as his headquarters, though a shell had gone through it the evening before, and another had cut down a tree directly in front of it.

Our line of battle was formed with Gen. Berry's gallant division on the right, Gen. Birney next on the left, Gen. Whipple and Gen. Williams supporting. At 5½ a. m. the advance became engaged in the ravine, just beyond the ridge, where Capt. Best's guns had made their terrific onslaught the night before, and where they still frowned upon the enemy and threatened his destruction.

The rattle of musketry soon became a long continued crash, and in a few moments, as battalion after battalion became engaged, the roar surpassed all conception, and indicated that the fight would be one of the most terrible nature. Gen. Berry's division, which had checked the enemy's advance the night before, engaged him again, and if it were possible for them to add more laurels to their fame, then they did it thrice over again. The enemy advanced his infantry in overwhelming numbers, and seemed determined to crush our forces. But the brave men of Sickles and Slocum, who fought their columns with desperate gallantry, held the rebels in check and inflicted dreadful slaughter among them. Gen. French's division was sent in on the right flank of our line about 7 a. m., and in a short time a horde of ragged, streaming rebels running down the road indicated that that portion of the enemy's line had been crushed. At 8 o'clock a. m. Gen. French sent his compliments to Gen. Hooker, with the information that he had charged the enemy and was driving him before him.

Sickles sustained the attack upon his line with great endurance. The enemy seemed determined to crush him with the immensity of his forces, and, as subsequently shown from the statements of prisoners, five whole divisions of the rebel army were precipitated upon this portion of the line, for from these five divisions we took during the day an aggregate of over 2,000 prisoners.

The exploits of our gallant troops in those dark, tangled, gloomy woods may never be brought to light; but they would fill a hundred volumes. It was a deliberate, desperate hand to hand encounter, and the carnage was perfectly frightful. Cool officers say that the dead and wounded of the enemy covered the ground in heaps, and that the rebels seemed utterly regardless of their lives and literally threw themselves upon the muzzles of our guns. Many desperate charges were made during the fight, particularly by Berry's division. Mott's brigade made fifteen distinct charges, and captured seven stands of rebel colors, the 7th New Jersey, Col. Francine, alone capturing four stand of colors, and five hundred prisoners.

Gen. Couch's 2d army corps, though only in part present, did excellent work. It was Gen. French who charged and drove the enemy on the flank, and it was the indomitable Hancock who gallantly went to the relief of the hard pressed Sickles.

The engagement lasted without the slightest intermission from 5:30 a. m. to 8:45 a. m., when there was a temporary cessation on our part, occasion by getting out of ammunition. We held our position for nearly an hour with the bayonet, and then being re-supplied, an order was to fall back to the vicinity of the Chancellorville House, which we did in good order. Here the contest was maintained for an hour or more, not so severely as before, but with great havoc to the enemy, and considerable loss to ourselves.

The vicinity of the Chancellorville House was now the theatre of the fight, and my visits to that spot became less frequent. Gen. Hooker maintained his headquarters there until 10 o'clock a. m., when it was set on fire by the enemy's shells, and is now in ruins. Chancellorville is no longer in existence, having perished with the flame, but Chancellorville in history, never to be effaced.

Our new line was now so far established as to render it safe to withdraw all our forces on that front, which was accordingly done, and at 11:30 a. m. the musketry firing ceased.

The engagement had lasted six hours, but had been the most terrific of the war. Our artillery literally had slaughtered the enemy, and many of the companies had lost heavily in men themselves, but the guns were all saved.

The enemy was no longer in our rear, but had been shoved down directly in our front, and is now directly between us and our forces in Fredericksburg, and we were again in an entrenched and formidably fortified position.

WHEAT FOR FRANCE.—The Green Bay Advocate learns that 30,000 bushels of wheat have been purchased in Oshkosh, by a party in New York, for direct shipment to Havre, France. It is known as the "Green Bay Club."

A "parliamentary" juror in a court in western New York interrupted the proceedings, last week, by remarking that he considered the labors imposed upon the jury were unjustly severe, and believing that a motion to adjourn was always in order, he would move that the court do now adjourn.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President,
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

An official dispatch received at Washington, to-day, from Admiral Porter, states that he occupied Grand Gulf forts on the 3d inst.

A dispatch from Yorktown states that Col. Kilpatrick with his cavalry division has arrived at Gloucester point, having accomplished the object of his expedition.

Dispatches from headquarters of the army of the Potomac, dated 7th, say that Gen. Stoneman not only destroyed all railroad communication, but destroyed the canal on James river,

MEMPHIS, May 7, via CAIRO, May 8.

Special to the Tribune.—We have information that Gen. Grant has captured Grand Gulf, Port Gibson and Willard Valley. On Wednesday noon, Grant was thirty miles up the Big Black, and expected to go ten miles more that night.

His forces are traveling overland. Every man in his army is enthusiastic at the prospect now of what is deemed certain victory.

WASHINGTON, May 8.

Special to the Tribune.—A confidential dispatch from Lee to the rebel President, captured by Stoneman, claims a great victory, but adds that his loss is terrific.

The officers returned from Richmond saw two divisions of Longstreet's force coming up the river.

Over five hundred wounded were brought up to this city, to-day.

The rebels in Fredericksburg, on Wednesday commenced to throw shells at a body of our troops, who were on this side, but our batteries on Falmouth Hights soon silenced them. They did not make a second attempt of this nature,

The President and Gen. Halleck went down on Wednesday evening on a special boat to Acquia Creek, where they took the cars for Falmouth. They met with a most enthusiastic reception from the whole army. The party visited the hospitals and paid particular attention to our wounded soldiers.

They were in consultation with Hooker all day yesterday. At the time of our recrossing the Rappahannock, a large number of Virginia refugees availed themselves of the opportunity of coming with our troops. Among the the number was a lady who stated that she had been in the rebel lines for some time.

They rebels had the flower of their army at Fredericksburg, and every regiment not able to make a long march or endure much fatigue was sent to subordinate posts, and placed as garrisons in forts on the James river, so that the best troops the rebel confederacy could muster were in Hooker's front. The immense loss they sustained will send a wail from one end of the south to the other.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—There has been intense excitement in the city all the forenoon, on account of an attempt to mob and destroy the Age newspaper office—F. G. Grund's secesh organ. It is the leading copperhead of the place. The bulletin board was covered with a large placard, headed "Arbitrary Arrests," and alluding to C. L. Vallandigham as a martyr. The latter part contained comments on General Hooker of an uncomplimentary kind.

A wounded Union soldier passing by, tore the placard off. A clerk in the office attempted to interfere, but the crowd gathered, and upheld the soldier in his act. The crowd soon became a mob, and proceeded into the office with the expressed intention of tearing it down, giving as they went loud cheers for Hooker and the Union.

Mayor Henry called out a large force of extra police, and succeeded in preventing violence, but the excitement did not subside until past 11 o'clock. All is now quiet.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—This morning's Washington Chronicle, generally regarded as the government organ, contains the following: Time only can develope the precise reasons why General Hooker withdrew his army across the Rappahannock. It may be that not only the swelling of the stream by three days' rain, but some ulterior purpose caused the movement which was so unexpected to the public at large. We do not care to speculate. We are content with certainty.

It is certain, then, that we have inflicted vastly more damage on the enemy than they have on us. The whole amount of our wounded cannot exceed 5,000 and our killed 1,500. This we learn from reliable sources. There is no means of telling how many prisoners we have taken, but it is certainly more than 5,000. The number reported by Lee and our dispatches from Suffolk show this to be an overestimate.

The fact that the enemy were not willing to follow us as we withdrew to the rear, or to interfere in our crossing, is certain indication of their exhaustion. They were unquestionably terribly cut up.

General Stoughton reports that they acknowledged to unprecedented losses, and that they suffered especially from artillery. On the other hand, we found our own army in the very best of spirits.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 9.

The World's Washington special states that when the President and Halleck read the intelligence of Hooker's recrossing the Rappahannock, at 3 o'clock yesterday, they immediately proceeded to his headquarters at Falmouth, where they spent the night, and most of the next day, returning here last night. The report which found its way into print that 40,000 men from Heintzelman were sent to reinforce Hooker is untrue, not a single man was sent. The most reliable information estimates of our loss in killed, wounded and prisoners, place it not in excess of 15,000.

Gen. Averill has been relieved of his command for not keeping open communication with Stoneman, and following up orders for his part of the cavalry expedition. Averill's friends are confident that he did nothing that cannot be fully justified.

The reported loss of a large amount of field artillery in Hooker's retreat is untrue. It is believed that our forces brought away more than they crossed with. Hooker had nearly recrossed the Rappahannock before he heard the news in the rebel papers of the success of Stoneman's expedition.—But few of the wounded are arriving here. The cause of delay is unknown.

The President told a member of the cabinet this p. m. since his return from Falmouth, that he found Hooker's army in a much better condition than he anticipated, and he believed that the moment the weather cleared off it could again make a forward movement, if it should be so decided.

Among the improbable rumors brought by the boat this p. m. was one that the enemy commenced shelling Falmouth, to-day, and another that Hooker had commenced to cross again. There has been no excitement in Washington to-day. It is believed in Washington that the conscription act will be immediately enforced, beginning with the state of New York.

Times' special says official confirmation has been received of the capture of the Richmond city battalion, who were sent out to discover the reason for the suspension of intercourse with Lee. They were captured by Stoneman about 15 miles from Richmond.

Sixty-five rebel prisoners took the oath of allegiance, and more than a quarter of the prisoners taken will do the same. One hundred and twenty wounded arrived at Washington Friday.

The Tribune despatch states that the wounded will all be brought to Washington and are arriving rapidly, 1,170 rebel prisoners captured at Chancellorville have been sent to Fort Delaware. Many of them wish to take the oath of allegiance. The returned prisoners from Richmond state that Longstreet's force, comprising two divisions, was seen coming from Suffolk to Richmond, when our returned prisoners were on their way down the river. The Richmond Despatch, of the 7th, states that the rebel surgeons give their loss at 18,000.

The Herald's dispatch states that the war department has consented that wounded soldiers may go home to be nursed.

A correspondent of the Herald states that the 12th New Hampshire went into the fight with 580 and came out with only 150. The Vermont brigade lost 300.

NEW YORK, May 9.

The Herald's special says that the latest rumor is that General Heintzelman is to be placed in command of the army of the Potomac, in place of Hooker.

MEMPHIS, May 7, via Cairo, May 8.

Special to Chicago Times.—The steamer Luminary left Young's Point on Tuesday night, and arrived this morning, on Friday. A portion of our forces up Big Black river had a fight at Port Gibson which they occupied. The federal loss is reported at 200 killed and wounded, Port Gibson is six miles in the rear of Grand Gulf, which the rebels hastily evacuated, after the fight at Gibson, and the gunboat engagement in front of the former. The captain of the Luminary says the federals certainly occupied Grand Gulf. This gives Grant possession of the Big Black river and access to the rear of Vicksburg. If he succeeds in tapping the Jackson railroad, the Vicksburg line of communication with the interior will be cut off.

A few days ago the steamers Moderator and Horicon, which had been engaged in carrying troops across near Grand Gulf, collided, and the Horicon sunk. One section of the Chicago battery was aboard and was lost.

On Sunday night a tug with a barge of hay on each side started to run the Vicksburg batteries to join the fleet below.—When nearly by the city she was struck by a hot shot from the rebel batteries which fired the hay. The tug and barges were consumed. My informant states that only one person was known to have escaped. Only 15 or 20 persons were aboard. The river is still falling below. The gunboat Choctaw will be ready for service in a few days. Her injuries are not so bad as reported.

An expedition from here to Raleigh in this county, a few days ago, obtained a large number of horses and cattle and 36 prisoners, mostly captured near Holley Springs, reached the city yesterday. Rebel reports claim the capture of several hundred prisoners at Tuscumbia recently by Gen. Forrest.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

A Merited Testimonial of Respect.

The following testimonial of respect from the business and professional men of the city has been handed us for publication. During the many years in which Mr. Abeel has been located here, our citizens have ever found in him a gentlemanly acquaintance, accommodating and liberal in his business intercourse with them, and the company he has served has had a faithful, intelligent and discreet agent.—He carries with him, in his removal to another post of duty, the best wishes of all who know him.

The undersigned, business men of the city of Janesville, have learned with regret that Mr. W. Abeel, agent of the Galena & Chicago Union railroad company is about to leave our city and occupy the same relation to the road at Madison.

Mr. Abeel has been the agent for that company here for several years, and during that time has, by his excellent management of its affairs, and by his agreeable manners and general social intercourse with our citizens, justly merited their high esteem.

While, therefore, we very much regret his departure from this place we very cheerfully commend him to the kind regard of those with whom his lot may be cast in the future.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Yesterday, Mr. John Dunn, father of John and Martin Dunn, of this city, was crossing the railroad track as a train was coming in from Milton, and was caught by the cow-catcher. He was thrown down, his head severely cut, and one of his legs broken. We are happy to learn that he seems to be doing well, and is likely to recover.

Lyon's Kathairon.

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention, which first created its immense and unprecedented sales of over one million bottles annually! It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year when it is again known that the Kathairon is not only the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but that it cleanses the scalp of scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a lively rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. These are considerations worth knowing. The Kathairon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values a beautiful head of hair will use the Kathairon. It is finely perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

To Horse Owners.

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivaled by any, in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily.—Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by the Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness, will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and

of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 38 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.

But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth, cannot pretend to

COMPETE WITH US!

In proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York E Sheetings, 30c per yd,
200 ps Portsmouth unblanched factory, ........20c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines,..........................25c "
500 ps new Spring DeLaines,......................31¼c "
300 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1¼ yds long, $2,50.
100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 31¼c"

200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd,

which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied

Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c, all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.

We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior

HOOP SKIRTS

at old prices. Our stock of

Hosiery, Gloves & Embroideries

In Our Millinery Department

will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnetts and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.

A Merited Testimonial of Respect.

The following testimonial of respect from the business and professional men of the city has been handed us for publication. During the many years in which Mr. Abeel has been located here, our citizens have ever found in him a gentlemanly acquaintance, accommodating and liberal in his business intercourse with them, and the company he has served has had a faithful, intelligent and discreet agent.—He carries with him, in his removal to another post of duty, the best wishes of all who know him.

The undersigned, business men of the city of Janesville, have learned with regret that Mr. W. Abeel, agent of the Galena & Chicago Union railroad company is about to leave our city and occupy the same relation to the road at Madison.

Mr. Abeel has been the agent for that company here for several years, and during that time has, by his excellent management of its affairs, and by his agreeable manners and general social intercourse with our citizens, justly merited their high esteem.

While, therefore, we very much regret his departure from this place we very cheerfully commend him to the kind regard of those with whom his lot may be cast in the future.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Yesterday, Mr. John Dunn, father of John and Martin Dunn, of this city, was crossing the railroad track as a train was coming in from Milton, and was caught by the cow-catcher. He was thrown down, his head severely cut, and one of his legs broken. We are happy to learn that he seems to be doing well, and is likely to recover.

The things that are really for us, naturally gravitate to us.

Lyon's Kathairon.

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention, which first created its immense and unprecedented sales of over one million bottles annually! It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year when it is again known that the Kathairon is not only the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but that it cleanses the scalp of scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a lively rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. These are considerations worth knowing. The Kathairon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values a beautiful head of hair will use the Kathairon. It is finely perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

To Horse Owners.

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivaled by any, in all cases of Lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily.—Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by the Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness, will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

For sale. [ap26dtf] O. J. DEARBORN

GENERAL ORDER No. 1.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

PUBLIC INSPECTION

at the

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 38 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for

Piles of Goods,

the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public. But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to month, cannot pretend to

COMPETE WITH US!

In proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York H Sheetings, 30c per yd,
200 ps Portsmouth unbleached factory, ..........20c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines, ..........25c "
500 ps new Spring DeLaines, ..........31½c "
300 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1¼ yds long, $2,50.
100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 31½c"

200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd,

which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.

Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.

We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior

HOOP SKIRTS

at old prices. Our stock of

will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugene, Bordure Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.

IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS

We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed. Our stock of all wool, silk warp and domett for spring and summer wear is full and well assorted.

SHAWLS! SHAWLS!

We have on the road and will shortly receive Five Hundred of the most fashionable for spring wear.

BLACK SILKS,

New Broom Black Silks, (to be had only of us,) also English Crown, Sumblime and Bischoff do do.

We close out from one of the heaviest importers in New York, 600 pieces heavy worth 50c per yard, which to those who buy to keep over, or for immediate wear, we offer as a drive at 25c per yard.

In Our Millinery Department

will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnetts and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.

SHAKER HOODS,

OUR CLOTHING STORE

is heavily stocked with all the new and desirable styles of

GENT'S GARMENTS.

We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of which, if desired, we shall

MAKE UP TO ORDER

in the first style of fashion.

In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchaser not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the

GREAT MART,

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN SHEEP,

where they can obtain

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

SOUTH FIRST STREET.

Specifications for Grading, Paving Gutters and building Crosswalks on South First Street, between Main Street and Jackman Street in the Third Ward.

GRADING.—The road bed will be 30 feet in width between the paving of the gutters, and the center line of the road bed will be 18 inches above the bottom of the gutters. The road bed when completed will be crowning and uniform in surface, rising regularly from the bottom of the gutters to said center line. The grading will be estimated by the cubic yard in excavation, nothing being allowed for earth in embankment, surfacing, &c.

The material for embankment will be taken, first, from the sides of the road and in such manner as form the gutters and a grade for sidewalks.

And, secondly, from the excavation to be made in the line of the road.

When the haul does not exceed 300 feet it will be estimated simply as earth in excavation, and bids must be made for the cubic yard, for every 100 feet over 300 feet.

The material for the road bed is to be earth and clay and no sand or gravel to be used.

GUTTERS.—The gutters, one on each side of said street are to be six feet in width at the top and eight inches in depth at the lowest point.

The gutters will be paved with good sound stone eight inches in width and placed upon their edges, and laid upon sand and gravel, and in such manner as to form a curved channel for the water. The shape of the gutters and the manner of laying the outside courses of stone, will be such as the aldermen of said ward may direct. The paving will be estimated by the lineal foot, which will include preparing bed for the stone, laying stone, hauling and furnishing same, &c.

SIDEWALKS.—The bed for the sidewalks, on each side of said street, will be 12 feet wide, composed of sand or gravel or other good material, and will correspond, in grade, as near as may be with the center line of said street; the said walks are to be made smooth and even and ready for planking.

CROSSWALKS.—At the southern intersection Bluff, Division and Wisconsin streets with said South First street, there are to be stone crosswalks three feet in width and composed of stone, not less than one foot in thickness and three feet in length, all well laid.

All said work to be done under the direction of the aldermen of said third Ward.—Dated April 10th, 1863.

GREAT REDUCTION

IN

OF

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

Is the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented, FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the [illegible]

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

SOUTH FIRST STREET.

Specifications for Grading, Paving Gutters and building Crosswalks on South First Street, between Main Street and Jackman Street in the Third Ward.

Grading.—The road bed will be 30 feet in width between the paving of the gutters, and the center line of the road bed will be 18 inches above the bottom of the gutters. The road bed when completed will be crowning and uniform in surface, rising regularly from the bottom of the gutters to said center line. The grading will be estimated by the cubic yard in excavation, nothing being allowed for earth in embankment, surfacing, &c.

The material for embankment will be taken, first, from the sides of the road and in such manner as form the gutters and a grade for sidewalks.

And, secondly, from the excavation to be made in the line of the road.

When the haul does not exceed 300 feet it will be estimated simply as earth in excavation, and bids must be made for the cubic yard, for every 100 feet over 300 feet.

The material for the road bed is to be earth and clay and no sand or gravel to be used.

GUTTERS.—The gutters, one on each side of said street are to be six feet in width at the top and eight inches in depth at the lowest point.

The gutters will be paved with good sound stone eight inches in width and placed upon their edges, and laid upon sand and gravel, and in such manner as to form a curved channel for the water. The shape of the gutters and the manner of laying the outside courses of stone, will be such as the aldermen of said ward may direct. The paving will be estimated by the lineal foot, which will include preparing bed for the stone, laying stone, hauling and furnishing same, &c.

SIDEWALKS.—The bed for the sidewalks, on each side of said street, will be 12 feet wide, composed of sand or gravel or other good material, and will correspond, in grade, as near as may be with the center line of said street; the said walks are to be made smooth and even and ready for planking.

CROSSWALKS.—At the southern intersection Bluff, Division and Wisconsin streets with said South First street, there are to be stone crosswalks three feet in width and composed of stone, not less than one foot in thickness and three feet in length, all well laid.

All said work to be done under the direction of the alderman of said third Ward.—Dated April 10th, 1863.
